Alma Mater

Today we gladly sing the praise
Of her who owns us as her sons;
Our loyal voices let us raise
And bless her with our benisons.
Of all fair mothers, fairest she,
Most wise of all that wisest be,
Most true of all the true say we,
Is our dear Alma Mater.

Her mighty learning we would tell
Tho' life is something more than lore,
She could not love her sons so well
Lov'd she not truth and honor more,
We praise her breadth of charity,
Her faith that truth shall make men
free,
That right shall live eternally,
We praise our Alma Mater.

The City White hath fled the earth,
But where the azure waters lie,
A nobler city hath its birth,
The City Gray that ne'er shall die.
For decades and for centuries.
Her battlemented tow'rs shall rise
Beneath the hope-filled western skies,
'Tis our dear Alma Mater.

—Edwin H. Lewis, '94.

GREETING TO NEW STUDENTS

New students in the University are cordially welcomed to our fellowship. The life in the quadrangles has many features of interest unlike any other, and with each recurring quarter and year we are glad to receive into the enjoyment of that life a new body of young men and women. The years one spends in the University, whether in the colleges or in the professional schools, should be years without a shadow. In the active industry of class and laboratory, in recreation and social relations, there is much to stimulate an intelligent mind and to satisfy the natural craving for healthy pleasure. In sharing these benefits one should remember that something is due from him in return. Each one owes to the University and to his associates loyal support and generous giving of one's best. "Each for all and all for each" is a motto which University students may well take to heart. The new students who come to the University this year in that spirit, as may be confidently expected of all, will find here their best expectations realized, and will in turn make themselves thoroughly a part of the best life of the University of Chicago.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

The first University of Chicago closed its work in 1886. Within a few months thereafter Mr. John D. Rockefeller took into consideration the founding of a new institution of learning in that city. In the fall of 1888 he conferred with Professor William R. Harper in regard to it, and finally entered into communication on the subject with Rev. F. T. Gates, Secretary of the American Baptist Education Society. In December, 1888, Mr. Gates brought the matter before the Board of the Society, which approved the effort to establish a well-equipped institution in Chicago, and instructed the Secretary to use every means in his power to originate and encourage such a movement. Being also encouraged by Mr. Rockefeller, Mr. Gates henceforth gave himself, with untiring devotion, to the work of founding the University of Chicago.

At the annual meeting of the Education Society, held in Boston in May, 1889, the Society formally resolved "to take immediate steps toward the founding of a well-equipped college in the City of Chicago." To make it possible to carry out this purpose, Mr. Rockefeller at once made a subscription of $600,000 toward an endowment fund, conditioned on the pledging of $400,000 before June 1, 1890.

The annual meeting of the Education Society in June, 1890, was held in Chicago, and the Board of the Society adopted articles of incorporation and a charter for the new Institution. On September 10 of the same year the University was incorporated.

The incorporators named in the charter were John D. Rockefeller, E. Nelson Blake, Marshall Field, Fred T. Gates, Francis E. Hinckley, and Thomas W. Goodspeed. The name of the corporation in law is "THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO." In recognition of the peculiar relation of Mr. Rockefeller to the institution, the Board of Trustees has enacted that on the official publications of the University the title shall read: "The University of Chicago, founded by John D. Rockefeller."

At the first meeting of the Board after its incorporation in September, 1890, Professor William Rainey Harper, of Yale University, was elected President; and he entered on the duties of his office July 1, 1891. Before Professor Harper accepted the presidency, the scope of the institution had been greatly enlarged. Professor Harper felt that it should be in fact, as well as in name, a university, and Mr. Rockefeller, agreeing with this view, in September, 1890, added one million dollars to his former subscription. In accordance with the terms of this second subscription, the Baptist Union Theological Seminary was removed from Morgan Park, to the University site, as the Divinity School of the University, an Academy of the University was established at Morgan Park, and $100,000 of the amount of the subscription was devoted to the erection of divinity dormitories on the grounds of the University.

President Harry Pratt Judson, in his address at the service on October 1, 1913, commemorating the opening of the University twenty-one years ago, made the following striking comparisons: "The faculty at that time numbered about one hundred; at present it numbers about four hundred. Since that date the number of students who have matriculated, thus having had courses at some time in the University, is 49,941. The total number of students enrolled during the year opening the first of October, 1892, was 742. The number enrolled during the year closing June 30, 1913, was 6,802. The number of those who have received degrees from the University since its opening is 7,050. The grounds belonging to the University in 1892 comprised twenty-five acres. The present campus, including the Midway frontage on both sides, from Cottage Grove Avenue to Dorchester Avenue, is nearly one hundred acres. The buildings in use on the grounds twenty-one years ago included Cobb Hall and the three dormitories adjoining the building on the south. The University has now about forty buildings. The total of gifts paid in at the opening amounted to $925,813.08. The total of gifts paid in at this time amounts to $35,086,836.45. In addition to that sums pledged and payable within a short time in the future amount to $7,495,000."

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Statement of Purpose

The Young Men's Christian Association of the University of Chicago, in a spirit of brotherhood to all men, in faithful allegiance to Jesus Christ who has made known through His life and teaching the highest ideals for human life and character, and in reverent faith in God, seeks the realization of the ideals of Jesus in both individual and social life within the University and throughout the world.

Membership

The Association is open to all men of the University who express by signing the membership agreement, their agreement with the purpose of the Association and their personal desire and purpose to further its work. In accordance with this agreement each member is expected to give certain time and service in promoting Association activities in which he is interested, and to make an annual contribution to the Association treasury. In conformity with the requirements of the Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago, to which this Association is a Department, no membership card can be issued until a minimum annual contribution of One Dollar ($1.00) has been made. Membership shall continue during the member's connection with the University, provided the annual contribution is made each year and the relation is not annulled by the member or the Association.

Organization

To adapt its work more closely to the scheme of organization of the University and to the conditions of student life, the Association has adopted a Commission form of organization. This organization consists of Association Group Commissions, appointed to promote the work of the Association among definite groups of students, such as freshmen, etc., among the undergraduates, and Law, Medical, etc., among the graduates. A Student Executive Council composed of the Chairman of these several Commissions. An Administrative Council made up of representatives of the student body, faculty and alumni and friends of the Association. To maintain its position as an agent and not a competitor of the church, the Association vests the right to hold office in both the Administrative Council and the Student Executive Council in those members who are in good standing in some Evangelical Church.

Platform

Position in the University.

This Christian Association is a voluntary organization of the men of the University of Chicago, designed to supplement by personal initiative and action the work of the University along the line of moral and religious education. The efficiency of the work is dependent upon the active interest and financial support of those University men and their friends who are in sympathy with it. The work of the Association is recognized and encouraged by the University, and is a constituent part of the Christian Union.

Relation to Student Organizations.

In purpose and aim the Association wishes to avoid competition with all organizations working along the line of general student activities. The field of its activity is definitely within the realms of moral and religious culture. It desires to co-operate in every possible way with those student organizations that aim to foster and promote moral and religious ideas among University men.

Moral Culture.

The Association deprecates moral laxness of any kind and purposes to war upon all evils that encroach upon student life in such a way as to undermine high moral standards and to deteriorate character. All the forces of the Association will be set to solve the problems of cultivating within the student mind and consciousness a high sense of honor and a spirit of loyalty in thought and practice to the highest moral standards.

Religious Life.

The Association recognizes that the period of University life is for many men a time of readjustment in thinking about religious problems. It seeks to impress upon men the supreme importance of the religious life and the urgent need of its careful and constant cultivation. It encourages frank consideration of religious questions in personal, voluntary and curriculum Bible study, group meetings for conference and prayer and public lectures.

Church Co-Operation.

The Association considers itself an agent of the church, and seeks to emphasize the place and value of the church in personal and community life. Students are assisted in maintaining, or in entering upon, vital personal connection with the church of their choice.

Service.

The Association holds that religious life is strengthened by service for others. It seeks to develop a vital interest in modern social and missionary problems. Students are given opportunity to help in settlements, social centers, and missions, among our nearby neighbors, and to relate themselves in knowledge, in gifts and in person to the great missionary agencies at work among the peoples of other lands.

YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN LEAGUE

Purpose

The growth of Christian life among women of this University, seeking through its activities and inspiration to develop mature and efficient Christian women, whose spiritual development will correspond with their development along other lines in this great University.

October 8th—Freshman Frolic

This starts the ball rolling! Have you an Upperclass Counsellor to bring you? If you haven't, come to the League Room and get one. You can't afford to miss the Freshman Frolic—the big "get together" of all University women. We want every new woman to be there. "Open House" in the League Room all the time, but especially on Wednesday afternoons at 4—come in for a cup of tea. Sunday afternoon, October 3rd, is our first tea—Vespers tea at 4 P. M.

Do You Want Something to Do?

We have many interesting things for anyone who wants to do them. The League stands for fellowship and good comradeship, the spirit of service and good times and hard work. The outline of the departments of the League is on the next page. Make arrangements at the desk to meet the chairman of the department in which you are most interested.

Every Thursday at 10.15 in Lexington 14 the League holds religious and social service meetings—short and inspiring. Make your attendance a habit—it will be well worth while. You will hear men and women and fellow-students that are well worth hearing, on subjects that are of importance and interest.

Bible Study Classes

If these do not fill your needs and desires, tell us what you want and you may have it.

Autumn Quarter

1. A special class for Freshmen.
2. Mission Classes—echo from Geneva Conferences.

3. Discussion Class for juniors and seniors led by Miss Johnston.
4. Social Service problems presented and discussed in a series of talks under Dr. Yarros and Miss Breckinridge. Splendid instruction and information for the prospective worker.

Winter Quarter

Mission classes.

Bible Study Groups. To be announced.

Other Interests

Social service in Hyde Park and Stock Yards districts. The Big Sister Movement. Madras Campaign to support Margery Melcher, one of our former secretaries in her new field in India. Geneva Conference in August—join the Chicago delegation and make it the best ever!

The League's ideal of Christian service is practical usefulness and efficiency, specialized for a time to meet the needs of the University community, but broad enough ultimately for world service. "I am come that ye might have life and have it more abundantly."

The entering students are urged to make the acquaintance of Miss Helen Johnston, the General Secretary, as soon as possible. In any of the complexities or difficulties in which freshmen are apt to find themselves, Miss Johnston will be glad to lend a hand in straightening matters out. Miss Johnston may be found in her office in the League Committee Room in Lexington, and later in the year, in the office of the General Secretary in Noyes Hall.

Scholarships, Prizes, Student Service, Etc.

The University offers a considerable number of scholarships and other prizes (a) to students of high rank; (b) to the winners in various examinations and contests; (c) to students designated according to certain specified terms. These prizes may be used in payment of tuition fees due after the date of award.

Various forms of University service also are open to students.

Remunerative work is obtained by many students through the Employment Bureau.

For details concerning all these items see the Bulletin of Information, Assistance to Students, which may be obtained on request at the Information Office in Cobb Hall, or by addressing the University.

The Greek letter fraternity system, peculiar to the colleges of the United States, marks its beginning in the organization of the Phi Beta Kappa Society (now honorary) at William and Mary College in 1776. The fraternities are national organizations, having chapters in the various colleges. The object of these societies is primarily social, but their activities include many other phases of college life.

Membership in a fraternity is somewhat restricted; and an invitation to join always originates with the fraternity. If the fraternities desire your fellowship they will seek you. Until then the details of their activities need not be of any interest to you and the less you ask about them or comment upon them, as a newcomer, the wiser you are. While the aims and purposes of these societies at large are similar the local chapters of the several fraternities in a college are almost always found to differ greatly. Some pay more attention to the moral character of their members, others to scholarship, athletics or literary attainments. Others emphasize social graces, wealth or fashion. No man can join a fraternity without being strongly influenced by it. Before accepting an invitation to join any fraternity, therefore, you would be wise to consult professors, alumni and unprejudiced undergraduates in reference to the policy and standing of the local chapter. If not solicited to become a member of any fraternity do not consider yourself neglected and do not become embittered. It is no reproach not to be a fraternity man.

SONGS

For Chicago, Alma Mater.

For Chicago, Alma Mater!
And the honor of her name,
Her sons shall raise with loyal praise
The glory of her fame.
For Chicago, Alma Mater!
Just as long as her life shall run.
Hearts are in tune, beneath the old
Maroon,
Forever she has won.

—Donald R. Richberg, '01.

Wave the Flag

Wave the flag of old Chicago,
Maroon the color grand,
Ever shall our teams be victors,
Known throughout the land.
With the grand old man to lead them,
Without a peer they'll stand;
Wave again the dear old banner,
For they're heroes every man.

(Repeat.)

—Gordon Erickson, '10.

A Grand Old Stagg

He's a grand old Stagg,
Though we don't like to brag,
And his worth we will prove to you soon;
He's the idol of the team we love,
That fights for the dear old Maroon,
(Rah, Rah)
We'll stick by him, though we lose or we win,
And our faith in him can't lag;
Though other coaches may be good,
Take your hat off to "Old Man Stagg."

The Man Who Wears the "C."

O, here's to the man who wears the "C."
Who fights a good fight for the 'Varsity;
Here's to the man who's fought and won,
Showed his true worth as Chicago's son;
Here's to the man who's brave and bold,
Ready to battle like knights of old,
Fights like a tiger for victory,
O, here's to the man who wears the
"C."

Hello, Bello

Hello! Bello; Go Chicago, Go!
Hello! Bello! Down with every foe!
Fight like men today, boys, never give in,
For Chicago we know that you can win.
Hello! Bello! Wearers of the "C."
Hello! Bello! On to victory!
From the crowded bleachers
Hear our mighty yell
As we cheer for Varsity!

—Blackfriars, '10.

The March of the Maroons

Plunge, plunge on through the line
And fight for old Chicago's fame.
Smash into ev'ry play;
Chicago's grit will win this game.
As we roll up the score,
The cheers resound from high and low.
Tear through the line again and go,
Chi-ca-go! Go! Go! Go!

—Marvin, '12.

An Alma Mater

Now the shadows softly stealing,
Shroud with gray old Mitchell's Tow'r,
Now the lyric chimes are pealing,
Ringing in the twilight hour,
Now with love our hearts o'erflowing,
Sing we Alma Mater's fame,
In a paean ever growing,
To the glory of her name.

Tall and straight the gothic spires,
Stand against the darkening skies,
Turrets gleam with fading fires,
And the crimson evening dies.
Then we raise the lusty chorus,
Singing Alma Mater's praise,
May her banner long float o'er us,
Strength to her and length of days.

—Blackfriars, '13.

Chicago Marching Song

We are cheering for you, Chicago,
We are wearing your colors today,
We are loyal and true, Chicago, to you,
And we're here to help you win, Chicago,
We're Maroon thru and thru, Chicago,
And our hearts are with you, Chicago,
So we sing as you play, Chicago, today,
C-h-i-c-a-g-o.

CHORUS.

So march, march, marching along,
Cheer, Cheer, singing this song,
C-h-i-c-a-g-o, Chi-ca-go, Chi-ca-go, Chi-
ca-go,
Cheer, Cheer, hearts all in tune,
Wave, wave, the old Maroon and beneath
those colors fair,
Ev'rywhere we'll do and dare, for Chicago, Chi-ca-go, go.

So we cheer you today, Chi-ca-go,
City gray on the dear old Midway,
Twixt the East and the West,
Chicago is best,
And we're here to stand by you, Chicago,
You have won to this tune, Chi-ca-go,
And we sing as you play
Victory today,
V-i-c-t-o-r-y, Chicago.

—Agnes Wayman.
—Winifred Pearce.

"C" Stands for Cherished Courage.

Harvard proudly floats her crimson banner,
Yale's flag is blue as azure sky,
Iowa's flag is bathed in golden sunbeams,
Dartmouth proudly floats her green on high, green on high,
The cardinal of Wisconsin floats from north-land,
Pennsylvania boasts her navy "P,"
But there is no better letter worn on any hero's sweater
Than our "C" of victory.

CHORUS.

C stands for cherished courage,
H for her honor high,
I for her iron-bound interest,
C for her college cry, Chi-ca-go,
A for her aim so ardent,
G for her gallantry,
O stands for Old Man, the best coach in this land, the big "C" for victory.

Carl Burton, '08.

PUBLICATIONS

---

Note---Pages 46 to 61 inclusive, are edited by Mr. R. Bruce Martin and Miss Elsie B. Johns, for the Undergraduate Council.

The Daily Maroon is the official student publication of the University of Chicago. Managed and published by the students, it offers an opportunity to its staff to get some experience in amateur journalism. The staff is composed of a managing editor, two business managers and a news editor, a sporting editor, associate editors, reporters and cub-reporters. For further information apply to Maroon office, Ellis Hall. Price, $2.00 per year.

The Chicago Literary Monthly

The Chicago Literary Monthly is a magazine published monthly by the undergraduates during the Fall, Winter, and Spring quarters to encourage literary endeavor among the students and to furnish a medium of expression for them. Price, 10c per copy; 50c per year.

Cap and Gown

This annual provides a record of the college year in all branches of college activity.

There is an executive board of five members—two business managers, two managing editors, and a literary editor—chosen annually on a merit basis from the members of the sophomore class to edit the annual in their junior year.

All sophomores are eligible to compete for the position of business manager. Selection is based on work done in two lines: selling advertising space, and selling subscriptions. A ten per cent. commission is paid on all advertising obtained by candidates for business manager. Freshmen and sophomores who are not candidates for the executive board are paid twenty per cent. on all advertising secured by them.

The managing editors are chosen as follows: All freshmen who do work on the editorial side of the annual are eligible for election to the position of associate editor; the associate editors (sophomores) are assigned to special departments, and from their number the managing and literary editors are chosen upon the basis of ability. Price, cloth, $2.50—Morocco, $3.00.

The Alumni Magazine

The Alumni Magazine is issued monthly and is devoted to current happenings among the Alumni and all matters pertaining to the University which would be of interest to them.

STUDENT EXECUTIVE ORGANIZATIONS

Undergraduate Council.

The Council is constituted as follows
(a) The four division presidents are ex-officio, voting members; (b) In February there are elected three members by the Lower Senior division to serve until the June Convocation of the following year and two members each by the Upper Junior and Lower Junior divisions to serve one year. As the Lower Juniors are represented only by their president until the February election, the full council thus consists of twelve members before that election and fourteen from that time till the June Convocation. The freshman and sophomore members constitute the Junior College Council which officiates at the closing Junior College Chapel exercises. The Senior College Council has no separate function. The functions of the councils, within their respective spheres, are (1) to serve as a means of communication between the student body and faculties; (2) to exercise general supervision over the conduct of student affairs; (3) to be present officially for special duty at convocations and other public occasions where the student body is officially represented; (4) to supervise elections of division officers and counsellors. The Settlement Dance is given about the middle of the Fall quarter, under the direction and management of the Undergraduate Council, to raise money for the University of Chicago Settlement, 47th and Ashland avenue. The Faculty Dinner is given by the Council each Winter quarter to promote good fellowship between faculty and students. The Washington Promenade, the largest dance of the year, is given under the direct supervision of the Undergraduate Council each February, as is also the Inter-class Hop, which occurs each June and is informal. The president may be addressed in care Box 61, Faculty Exchange.

The Woman's Administrative Council

The Woman's Administrative Council was established last year when the need of a comprehensive executive board to draw together and supervise all of the women's activities was felt. It is deliberative as well as administrative and is composed of four faculty representatives, the ten University aides, and representatives from the dormitories and all campus activities for women.

It is organized into the following committees: Social Needs, Administration, Calendar and Membership. The president and the committee chairmen form the Executive Committee. The officers for this year are:

President, Mary Prince; Secretary, Marjory Fay; Executive Committee: Pauline Levi, Margaret Hancock, Alma Parmele, Agnes Sharp.

Honor Commission

The Honor Commission was formed after the students had shown their desire for such a body by a vote of all the undergraduates. The movement started when a few students realized that considerable dishonesty was prevalent in the undergraduate classes.

They believed not only that dishonesty in getting a degree from this University detracted from its value, but also that every person should leave this institution with a definite prejudice against dishonesty in any form. Steps were taken to build up an organization which would stand permanently for honesty in undergraduate work. Since the Commission's institution, the student attitude toward cheating has materially changed. To realize the full purpose of the Commission it must have the co-operation of every student in the University.

Marshals and Aides

Nomination as a marshal or aide is the highest appointive undergraduate honor in the University. Selections are made by the President of the University. College students with at least eighteen majors and not more than twenty-seven at the end of the Winter quarter are eligible. The list of eligibles is studied by the Marshal of the University, the Deans, and the Secretary to the President. The elimination by these officers is on the basis of scholarship, discipline, personality.

The University Marshal may confer with the college marshals and aides concerning the selected list. Marshals and aides may prepare statements of student honors, etc., of candidates and express opinions on the merits of some forty candidates. The Marshal of the University and the Secretary to the President make a final check of the recommendations of the deans and marshals, and present the list to the President of the University, who personally selects ten marshals and ten aides.

ATHLETICS

The men's athletics are divided into two classes; the major sports and minor sports. The major sports are football, basketball, track and baseball. The minor sports are swimming, cross country, tennis, gymnastics, wrestling, fencing and golf. To be eligible for the Varsity Team in any of these sports the candidate must have at least nine majors credit, with fourteen grade points, and must have been in residence at least one year. For more detailed information as to eligibility, see the Athletic Director. Successful candidates in the major sports receive the major C; in the minor sports the minor (Old English) C. Men engaging in minor sports who win the Conference championship in their sports, receive the major C. Announcements of meetings of candidates for all sports are made in the quarterly time schedules. (See special pages.)

Woman's Athletic Association

Purpose:

To promote the physical and social activity of University women.

Membership

The Association is open to all undergraduate women. To become active, a member must earn one hundred units. Units are received for participation in hockey, baseball, and other sports; for excellence in gymnasium, in dancing and apparatus work; for cross-country walks; for general improvement in physical condition; for work in various committees; for participation in the Campus Follies or in the W. A. A. circus. Consult the schedule of units which is posted in the gymnasium and become an active member.

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS

The Young Men's Christian Association.
See special pages.)

The Young Women's Christian League.
See special pages.)

Volunteer Band

The Volunteer Band at the University is made up of students who are definitely preparing for foreign missionary service, and seek to increase the interest in missions and knowledge of conditions in missionary lands, and to present to other students of the University the work of missions as a life investment.

The Brownson Club

The Brownson Club is the campus organization for Catholics. Its object is to further their social and church interests. Any Catholic wishing to affiliate with this organization may address the president of the club at the Faculty Exchange, or attend any of the meetings, which are announced on the bulletin board and in the Daily Maroon.

Christian Science Society

Meetings first and third Tuesday every month at 7.45 p. m. in Lexington 14. All students cordially invited.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

French Club

The French Club is composed of those students who have attained some proficiency in speaking and reading French. The purpose of the organization is to bring together in a social way those students who are interested in French. Weekly meetings are held in Lexington Hall, and occasionally a luncheon or dinner is given at which some person (usually an instructor) speaks. The club gives two or three French plays during the year. Those desiring admission into the organization address the President, French Club, Faculty Exchange.

German Club

The German Club is composed of those students who have attained some proficiency in speaking or reading German. The purpose of the club is to bring together in a social way those students who are interested in German. One or two German plays are given each year by members of the club. Students wishing to join this club, address the President of the German Club, Faculty Exchange.

Scandinavian Club.

The aims of this club are: first, to serve as a means of bringing together members of the University and others who are interested in things Scandinavian; second, to foster an interest in the history and culture of the Scandinavian countries; third, to encourage the study of Scandinavian languages and literatures in the University.

Membership is open to all students of Scandinavian blood. The officers are president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer. These officers are elected annually by the club members.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS

The University Orchestra, the University Band, the Choirs, the Women's Glee Club.

Information regarding membership in these organizations may be secured by addressing the following:

The Orchestra: J. Beach Cragun, Faculty Exchange.

The Band: F. M. Blanchard, Faculty Exchange.

The Choir: Robert W. Stevens, Faculty Exchange.

The Women's Glee Club: J. Beach Cragun, Faculty Exchange.

Glee and Mandolin Clubs

The University Glee and Mandolin Clubs give concerts from time to time in the University buildings and on trips. Freshmen are not eligible to membership. Other students are admitted after a tryout in which the members and conductor are the judges. The officers are president, manager, assistant manager and librarian. The manager need not be a singer or player. All officers are elected by the members of the club. An initiation fee of five dollars is charged. People may sing or play without being admitted to membership, but diligence in the work and regularity in attendance may result in election to membership and be awarded with the gold emblem of the club.

Tiger's Head

The Tiger's Head is an honorary men's musical club whose purpose is to advance the musical interests of the University.

Harpsichord

The Harpsichord Society is a club to foster good music among the women in the University. These women are eligible for election to membership who show some ability to sing or play some musical instrument. Informal try-outs are held for those who desire membership. Address the President, Harpsichord, Faculty Exchange.

DRAMATIC CLUBS

Blackfriars

This organization presents an original comic opera in the Spring quarter of each year. Freshmen are eligible for both cast and chorus, and on the basis of merit are elected into the organization. However, election from the chorus, because of the indefiniteness of the merit basis, depends almost entirely upon regularity of attendance at all rehearsals. Those persons participating in the writing of the lyrics or music for the opera are also eligible for election. Persons wishing to try out for cast or chorus address the Abbot of Blackfriars, Faculty Exchange, at the beginning of the Spring quarter.

Dramatic Club

This organization is for the study of modern and classical drama, and gives public presentations of significant plays. Tryouts are announced from time to time, and candidates gaining the approval of the three faculty judges present themselves to the regular club members for election. These members are Associate Members, and gain the rank of Regular Active members when they have appeared in any public performance given by the club. Performances in the Spring quarter are of plays written by undergraduates.

The Pen Club

The Pen Club is to promote the exchange of ideas between those engaged and interested in literary work of all kinds, and to give actual information of the literary field from those qualified by experience to know.

Masquers

Masquers is the Junior College Women's Dramatic Club. Public performances are given by the club during the school year. Once during each quarter those desiring membership in Masquers may try out. Those who write suitable plays for Masquers to present are also eligible (without tryout) for membership. Two meetings are held each month, one business, one social. Those desiring information concerning dates of tryouts should address President, Masquers, at Faculty Exchange.

HONORARY SOCIETIES

Phi Beta Kappa

Membership to Phi Beta Kappa is an honor awarded for special distinction in general scholarship.

Sigma XI

Membership to Sigma Xi is for evidence of ability in research work in science.

Order of the Coif

Membership to Order of the Coif is for high distinction in the professional work of the Law School.

CLASS SOCIETIES

Iron Mask

The order of the Iron Mask is the junior men's honorary society. The purpose of this club is to foster a spirit of good fellowship among the junior men and to work for the furtherance of all "Chicago" interests. Membership is on a basis of merit. Twenty men are selected each year from the sophomore class who have attained sufficient prominence and who have shown ability in campus activities.

The Skull and Crescent

The Skull and Crescent is a sophomore men's honor society, the purpose of which is to join its members together in a social way, and to create and maintain a vital interest for "Chicago." The club, furthermore, endeavors to interest "prep" and high school men in the University of Chicago. The members are chosen on a basis of merit. Twenty men are selected each year from the freshman class who have attained sufficient prominence in campus activities.

Score Club

The Score Club is a sophomore men's society, which elects twenty men annually to further its work as a unit in the social activities of the sophomore class. The new members are chosen from the freshman class, and are selected on a basis of scholastic merit and prominence in first year activities.

Three Quarters Club

The Three Quarters Club is the freshmen men's honorary society. It proposes to bring freshmen together in a social way. The members are chosen by the sophomores who were members during their freshman year from the candidates presented by the fraternities and by the non-fraternity group. Pledges, or candidates, are supposed to be chosen for their prominence. The pledging takes place during the third week in the Autumn quarter.

SOCIAL CLUBS

Reynolds Club

The Reynolds Club, located on the northeast corner of the campus, is the men's club of the University. The purpose of this club is to give the men of the University a suitable place to meet in a social way. Any man is eligible to membership upon payment of a $2.00 fee per quarter, which goes to maintain the club.

It is a student organization, managed by an executive council composed of students who are elected (in March) each year by popular vote of the members to serve the year following. The officers of the council are: President, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, librarian. Any member is eligible to hold office. The president and vice-president are usually seniors who have held one of the minor offices previously and are acquainted with the club management. The other officers are usually underclassmen.

Neighborhood Clubs

The Neighborhood Clubs are organizations of off-campus women, who maintain club rooms in Lexington Hall, which they use as social centers throughout their college days. Various kinds of entertainments are held here, and the rooms are open at all times for informal gatherings. The clubs divide their membership according to residence; the Midway forms the boundary for the north and south, and Woodlawn avenue divides the east and the west.

Miss Marion Talbot, Mrs. Philip Schuyler Allen, Mrs. Gilbert H. Bliss, Mrs. Robert Morss Lovett and Mrs. H. E. Slaught form the Advisory Council. Informal parties are given every Thursday. The Welcoming Reception for all entering students is held the first Thursday of each quarter. The Thanksgiving Spread is given by the Neighborhood Clubs the Wednesday night before Thanksgiving, and is attended by all University women whether members or not. A reception to the faculty is held each Winter quarter, to which each club member may invite one member of the faculty. A picnic is given late each spring quarter.

The membership fee of fifty cents per year may be paid in Lexington 14 any 10.15 period. The Neighborhood Clubs afford a delightful way of making friends among all college women, especially those in your own neighborhood.

Cosmopolitan Club

The Chicago chapter of the Cosmopolitan Club is an organization for all foreign students and their American friends in the University. Its purpose is both social and intellectual. Management is vested in a Board of Directors represented by each nationality. Meetings are held in the Club Rooms, 18 Ellis Hall. Membership fee, twenty-five cents per quarter. An invitation is especially extended to all students from other countries.

Freshman Women

To foster good fellowship among the freshman women, three rival clubs have been formed from the old Kaluili. All women interested may apply to one of the three: Black Bonnet, Blue Bottle or Yellow Jacket.

Women's Clubs

The Mortar Board, Esoteric, Quadranglers, Sigma, Wyvern, Phi Beta Delta, Chi Rho Sigma, Pi Delta Phi, Deltho and Spellman House.

Other Clubs.

For information on Southern Club, Women's Peace Society, Japanese Club, Chinese Club, Greek Club, International Club, and others not listed, consult the Cap and Gown.

Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Club Councils.

The purpose of the Inter-Fraternity Council is to co-ordinate the public activities of the fraternities to the single object of serving the University.

The Inter-Club Council accomplished the same purpose for the women's clubs.

Fraternities

Graduate: Gamma Alpha.

Medical: Alpha Kappa Kappa, Nu Sigma Nu, Phi Beta Phi, Phi Chi, Phi Rho Sigma, Alpha Phi Sigma.
